FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Liberty United Festival

Vineyard, UT – Mayor Julie Fullmer has opened her city for a new Festival helping small businesses and celebrating Liberty focused on unity. Julie Fullmer said, “I love anything to do with Liberty,” and in reference to coming together in unity said this “is necessary in our society.”

Jake Oaks and Shannon Macinnes, producers of LDC-TV talk show about the Constitution filmed at a sound stage studio featuring prominent guests, are pleased to invite all followers and the general public to a new kind of Festival. There is many freedom related festivals but LDC-TV (Liberty Defenders Of Our Constitution) felt that many have drifted from our founding values. This new event, Liberty United Festival, is focused on unity. Event organizers are inviting people of all backgrounds, political parties, ethnicities, and all walks of life, but says to set aside identity politics and come together as Americans to unite behind the constitution at this festival.

The event will take place May 1st at 2pm at Grove Park in Vineyard City and will have food trucks, music, bounce houses, speakers, and local vendor booths.

A few of the speakers will be the director of Utah Business Revival Eric Moutsos, State Senator Dr. Mike Kennedy, Economist and founder of Las Vegas Freedom Fest Mark Skousen, famous patriotic artist Eric Dowdle, 2nd generation Osmond performer Nathan Osmond, Ryan Woods plus more.

“The last year has been hard on everyone, and there's been a lot of divisiveness. This is a unique opportunity for the community to come together. I echo Mayor Fullmer that this is needed” says Jake Oaks who also quoted Thomas Paine “It is not in numbers, but in unity, that our great strength lies.” More information about the event can be found on the Liberty United Festival Event page on facebook.
